Who to Choose?

Read each statement and circle whether it sounds more like Samuel or more like Eli.

|   |               |            |
|---|---------------|------------|
| Chose to be obedient.   | Samuel | Eli |
| Would sometimes obey, but sometimes didn't.                           | Samuel | Eli |
| God was able to speak to him.   | Samuel | Eli |
| Would listen, but would rarely act.                                   | Samuel | Eli |
| More in line with how a priest/judge should behave.                   | Samuel | Eli |
| Made good decisions.  | Samuel | Eli |
| Didn't rely on God.   | Samuel | Eli |
| Relied on past accomplishments, not present and consistent obedience. | Samuel | Eli |
| Sought to do God's Will in everything.                                | Samuel | Eli |
